Looking for a Better Way to Get to Work?

If you’ve been working at home, the idea of returning to the daily drive may be a bit daunting. If you’ve been heading to work throughout the pandemic, you’re no doubt noticing that—as offices reopen—traffic is back to its usual (congested) levels.

Good news: Your Southern California rideshare agencies can help you find alternatives to the stress and expense of driving with a free RideGuide.

A RideGuide is a personalized guide that gives you your best commute options based on where you live, work, and your work schedule. It includes potential carpool partners, vanpools, bus/rail routing, Park & Ride lot locations and more.

To get a RideGuide, sign up at ridematch.info (Los Angeles/Orange/Ventura) or IECommuter.org (San Bernardino/Riverside).

You can also get commute help by calling 511.

Win a “Daycation”

You could win a getaway in Oceanside, courtesy of Orange County Transportation Authority, when you enter the Metrolink Daycation Sweepstakes.

The prize package includes a one-night stay at SpringHill Suites Marriott Oceanside as well as Metrolink roundtrip tickets, dinner for two and 3-hour bike rentals.
